

FOREWORD

It gives me immense pleasure to write the foreword for the fourth edition of the RGNUL Student Research Review (RSRR). I would like to take the opportunity to appreciate the efforts made by the students of RGNUL in the form of an Editorial Board for the successful completion of this edition. RSRR has inspired the young and innovative students to undertake legal research and articulate it in a comprehensible form. In the course of running the Review, the editors have not only learnt editing skills but also managerial and organizational skills.

The support of our peer-reviewers who are the leading academicians of this country, practicing advocates and other legal luminaries has been invaluable to us and I humbly thank them for the time they took out to review the articles that were submitted for consideration. I would like to take this opportunity to thank our contributors for their excellent work. I also convey my deep regards to EBC Publishers for agreeing to publish the journal for wider circulation of the excellent work undertaken through this academic endeavor.

The authors in have very succinctly dealt with the issue of Blockchain and its effects and implications on legal and financial industry. Furthermore, the contributors have provided articles on a wide spectrum of topics, discussing the need for regulation of Bitcoin in India and the legality of Smart Contracts

We would appreciate any further improvements in the journal as may be suggested by the contributors.
